Offering Something "Fore" Everyone

Event Registration
Starts 4/4/09

Being a member of the EWGA's Portland Chapter means great golf with good friends and special golf opportunities only available to our members. With a line-up that includes private clubs, courses we haven't played before and more shotgun starts, we know that many, if not all of these events will hit your sweet-spot. For more information and to sign-up, visit www.ewgapdx.com and go to the "Weekend Events" section.

May Golf Events

Sunday, May 17 — Oregon Golf Association's (OGA) Members Course (Woodburn, OR),

Consistently ranked one of the top 8 public courses to play in Oregon, OGA features lush rolling fairways lined with towering trees, bordered by pristine wetlands. This well-tended, but demanding tract, requires your best course management skills to score well with water frequently coming into play, forced carries, doglegs and blind shots to navigate.

Friday, May 29 — Riverside Golf & Country Club (Portland, OR) *1pm Shotgun Start

Lush fairways and some of the best greens in the Northwest await at Riverside Golf & Country Club. Normally open only to Riverside members, on May 29th, you can enjoy the splendor of this beautiful private course with its flat, rolling terrain and ample challenges that will test your shot-making skills. Following golf, we'll gather in our private clubhouse room overlooking the picturesque 18th green.

Sunday, May 31 — Cross Creek Golf Course (Dallas, OR)

Set in a scenic area west of Salem, this gem of a course offers generous fairways with ample mounding, creeks, lakes and sand bunkers to keep things interesting for every level of player. Come discover this exquisite, but challenging course that is quickly becoming one of the most popular in the valley.

June Golf Events

Saturday, June 13 — Myrtle Creek Golf Course (Myrtle Creek, OR)

Sunday, June 14 — Diamond Woods Golf Course (Monroe, OR)

If outstanding course layouts, picturesque vistas and high-rolling evening entertainment are your idea of a winning jackpot, you'll want to join us in beautiful Southern Oregon, just south of Roseburg. On Saturday, we're betting on scenic Myrtle Creek Golf Course to tickle your fancy with beautiful views of the surrounding countryside and a fantastic course layout that features rolling terrain, mounded fairways, well-bunkered greens and elevation changes. On Sunday, we'll let it ride a short way up I-5 to Diamond Woods Golf Course where you'll feel like you've been dealt a winning hand with this championship-caliber course. Group lodging will be available at the nearby Seven Feathers Resort and Casino.

Saturday, June 20 — Stone Creek Golf Club (Oregon City, OR)

Stone Creek provides abundant scenic value and challenges for every caliber of golfer with stunning views of Mt. Hood, towering Doug firs, lakes, wetlands and 43 bunkers. The front nine is situated in a meadow-like setting with greens well-guarded by bunkers, while the back nine winds through towering fir trees and wetlands, with the occasional hilly lie and forced carry to test your mettle. An optional handicap challenge game will also be played.

Saturday, June 27 — Indian Creek Golf Course (Hood River, OR) * Shotgun Start

With spectacular views of the snow capped peaks of Mt. Hood and Mt. Adams, the sheer beauty of this course can take your breath away. Indian Creek requires accuracy off the tee and the well-tended greens call for the soft and measured touch of a LPGA pro. Three creeks come into play throughout and with extensive elevation changes and long distances between holes you'll be glad to hear that a cart is included with this round.

July Golf Events

Saturday, July 18 — Michelbook Country Club (McMinnville, OR) *1pm Shotgun Start

Head out to wine country to drink in the scenery at Michelbook Country Club. This well-aged course offers ample complexity for all tastes providing a blend of relatively flat, tree-lined fairways with lakes that frequently come into play and fast, well-bunkered greens. Join us after play in our private clubhouse room where your palate will be rewarded with a delicious buffet dinner.

Sunday, July 26 — Resort at the Mountain (Welches, OR)

When the summer heat is at its peak, head for the cool mountain air at the newly renovated Resort at the Mountain. With three distinctly different nine-hole tracts and magnificent views, The Resort delivers an outstanding golf experience for well-intentioned beginners, seasoned pros and anyone in between.

August Golf Events

Sunday, August 2 — Camas Meadows Golf Club (Camas, WA) *9am Shotgun Start

Consistently ranked as one of the best courses to play in the Northwest, Camas Meadows offers an exceptional golf experience with state-of-the-art GPS carts and a challenging layout that will call on every club in your bag. Winding through tall stands of trees bordered by pristine wetlands, natural beauty abounds at Camas. A barbecue follows at the home of EWGA member, Mary (Computer Diva) Burger.

Saturday, August 8 — Sandpines Golf Links (Florence, OR)

Set among towering pines and wind-swept sand dunes, this Troon-managed course beautifully incorporates the rugged coastal terrain for a picture-perfect setting worthy of a PGA-Tour event. Offering a truly exceptional golf experience with a magnificent course layout and unparalleled hospitality, you'll leave Sandpines wanting to play it again and again.

Saturday, August 15 — Skamania Lodge (Stevenson, WA) *1:30pm Shotgun Start

One of the EWGA's favorite courses to play, Skamania Lodge is a magnificent mountain resort reminiscent of the rustic grand lodges of yesteryear.

Located just 45 miles east of Portland on the Washington side of the scenic Columbia River Gorge, the golf course is beautifully tucked into the resort's 175 wooded acres and offers up dramatic views in a tranquil setting. Straight shots off the tee and steady course management are key to scoring well here.

Sunday, August 23 — Mountain View Golf Course (Boring, OR)

Mountain View is most notably known for its #12 hole that's 184 yards long from the blue tees, with a direct descent of 180 feet—that's almost 18 stories! The course offers a fun challenge with rolling fairways lined with trees, sharp doglegs, water in play throughout and greens well guarded by bunkers.

September Golf Events

Sunday, September 6 — Lewis River Golf Course (Woodland, WA)

Nestled between the scenic Lewis River and the foothills of the Cascade Mountains, Lewis River Golf Course offers pristine views of the countryside, while testing your shot-making skills with tree-lined fairways, bunkers, water hazards and contoured greens. Join us for this event and receive a 2 for 1 coupon (valid through March 2010) to come back and play again!

Saturday, September 12 — Under the Stars Night Golf & Dinner at Lake Oswego Golf Course (Lake Oswego, OR) *Shot Gun Start

Usher in the fall season with a rollicking round of golf under the stars. The fun begins with a shotgun start for a daylight round on the front nine, followed by dinner and drinks in the clubhouse. Then it's back out to play the final 9 holes under the stars equipped with glow-in-the-dark balls and necklaces for a laughter-inducing, alternate shot, two-person team format. Prizes will be awarded!
